Review Policy

2017 - 2018

I will accept books for review, but will only provide my honest opinion to my readers. I accept physical copies, Advanced Reader Copies, and eBooks for review. I will not sell the books after I am finished reviewing.

If the book is provided for me, I will state so in my review, but will also include that I agreed to do only an honest review so that I don't sway my readers opinions. I will not berate the book, but will provide a critical analysis of the structure, story line, characters, and how it affects its genre.

Within a month (or the decided time frame) of receiving the book, I promise to read, write a review, and, if you so choose, upload a video onto YouTube with the given book featured. I can also upload a mini review onto Amazon or Goodreads if we agree upon that as well.

The genres of books that I read and review include Young Adult and New Adult (fiction, sci-fi, fantasy, and dystopian), historical fiction, fantasy, science fiction, magical realism, poetry, and thrillers.

The best way to contact me is through my email lazycoffeepriincess23@gmail.com

I reserve the right to accept or decline review requests based on my judgement, but will respond to the request.

Thank you very much for considering Lazy Coffee Princess.
